THE OFFICE OF COUNTY COUNSEL

The Office of County Counsel is a full-service law office, tasked with handling the County's civil law needs, including proactive participation in all phases of governmental decision-making and a very active and successful trial litigation program.

The office provides advisory and litigation support to the Board of Supervisors, County departments, County officers, boards, and commissions. The office also represents the County in juvenile dependency matters and administers public liability claims.

The Office of County Counsel is located on San Diego Harbor in the County Administration Center situated in the middle of the Waterfront Park.

County Counsel is mandated to defend all civil actions against the County, its officers, boards, commissions, and employees, and to provide other civil legal services to the Board of Supervisors, County officers, departments, boards, commissions and special districts. Services to special districts, including litigation, are provided on a fee basis. Through its Claims Division, the department administers public liability claims and County claims against third parties. County Counsel also represents the Health and Human Services Agency in juvenile dependency matters.

Mission Statement: "To deliver the highest quality legal services to our clients as efficiently and economically as possible in order to facilitate the achievement of the goal of County government to better serve the residents of San Diego County."

THE COUNTY OF SAN DIEGO
